The official party will return to Reno for a banquet at 7 p. m. at which time Secretary Udall will be featured speaker.

Halloween Party Planned By Vets

KINGS BEACH—Fall festivities along the North Sierra shores of Lake Tahoe will begin the evening of October 26, with the annual V. F. W. Post No. 7077 Halloween dance. The Crystal Bay Club will host the affair which starts at 8 p. m.

Earl Gray said that this affair was the local V.F.W. post's only public event to raise money for the V.F.W. community service program, and his committee had planned for more than 500 guests at a nominal donation of $1.50 each.

Commenting on questions regarding a recent V.F.W. magazine subscription drive, Gray stated that the group had received nearly $150 from that program with which they would purchase sick room equipment for use in the North Sierra Lake Tahoe area.

This equipment, such as hospital beds, wheel chairs, crutches, etc., would be placed strategically in the area for free use by any person in need of this type of equipment.

Winter Activities Are Proposed By Lake Tahoe C of C

CRYSTAL BAY — Directors of the Lake Tahoe Sierra Chamber of Commerce met Thursday, October 18, at the Nevada Lodge, Crystal Bay, Nevada for their regular noon luncheon and discussion of chamber affairs.

Don Beck, president of the group laid out a full program of winter activities for the civic association, starting with plans for the revival of the "Snowflake Ball" which was popular at North Lake Tahoe in the 1960's. It was proposed to combine the crowning of "Miss Sierra Snowflake of 1963" with the Snowflake Ball in order that she could preside at all chamber functions during the winter.

The second annual world's championship snow ball fight will be staged in the North Sierra Lake Tahoe area during January, according to Beck's time table. Other events planned are the Tahoe Sierra Dog Derby and the revival next June of the "Mile Hi Regatta" for limited racing boats.

Beck told directors that even though the chamber had an excellent activities program and had gained nearly 50 per cent in membership during the past nine months, he would continue to emphasize membership as the most vital and vigorous part of his program.

Director's meetings of the Lake Tahoe Sierra Chamber of Commerce are held every Thursday of each calendar month at noon and are open to the public.

County Chamber Planned At Meet

Exploratory steps toward the possible formation of a Nevada County Chamber of Commerce were taken at a meeting of 61 persons representing all areas of the county at Grass Valley Friday evening.

Methods of setting up a county chamber were explained by George Sawyer, regional director of the state chamber. Dean Thompson, Nevada City newspaper editor, was named temporary chairman and authorized to call a future meeting to further the proposed plans.

Daylight Time Will End Sunday When Clocks Turn Back

This year it was delayed a month, but it has finally caught up with us again.

We refer to the semi-annual time change designed to confuse and disrupt usual routines. Sunday morning daylight saving time will be shelved for six months or so and we again go on Pacific Standard Time.

This means that clocks and watches will be set back one hour when you go to bed Saturday night and at 2 a. m. Sunday, you are all fixed for the winter. Early next spring, you have it to do over, only at that time you advance the clock hands one hour.

By a vote of the people at the primary election, it was decided to advance the close of daylight saving time from the last Sunday in September to the last Sunday in October, probably just to add interest to an already interesting puzzle.

Truckee Traffic Is Tops On Borders

Despite a decline in out of state cars and passengers, traffic passing California's border checking stations during September topped that of a year ago, the department of agriculture reported.

The Truckee station topped all others with 319,783 passengers in 120,421 cars, 4,812 trucks and 1,541 buses. This was a decline from August when there were 265,531 cars and 805,929 passengers and also a drop from the 191,278 cars checked in September, 1961.

The Meyers station on Highway 50 showed a drop last month, compared to August, with 60,761 cars and 165,435 passengers checked while there were 76,349 cars checked in August.

During the month, 1,878,072 persons in 451,104 California cars, 225,617 out-of-state vehicles and 5,362 buses passed the border stations. This compared with 1,737,751 passengers in 404,542 California cars, 234,440 out-of-state cars and 4,530 buses in September, 1961.

Permits Required For Burning With Fire Season Over

Supervisor Hank Branagh of the Tahoe National Forest reports that the heavy rains earlier this month have effectively closed the 1962 fire season on the forest. All lookouts and fire crews have been released. Burning permits and campfire permits are still required, however, by state law.

Branagh said the 1962 season was a successful one, particularly from a fire damage and burned acreage standpoint, with only 44 acres burned.

The Tahoe Forest had 199 fires this season, 85 of them being in the Truckee district where less than 20 acres were burned over. Of the 85 local fires, 29 were man caused, the balance being from lightning. Of the 199 fires on the forest, 56 were man caused.

This year's total number of fires was considerably above the 10-year average which is principally caused by more lightning fires than usual with 143 compared to an average of 71. The 56 man caused fires compare to an average of 55.

Use of national forest areas has been increasing steadily the past few years. Branagh attributes the success in holding down the number of man caused fires, in face of the increased use, to intensive prevention effort on the part of national forest users and employees and to an effective publicity campaign through all available news media.

The publicity given to fire danger through timely newspaper articles is felt to have been particularly effective in the fire prevention effort.

Fast effective initial attack is necessary to hold wildland fire acreage down. The use of helicopter crews at White Cloud and Truckee and the PTF air tankers from Loma Rica along with strategically placed ground crews proved very effective this year, Branagh said.

HUNTING IS BEHIND LAST YEAR'S MARK

With three more weekends to go until the season ends November 4, deer hunting in this region has improved somewhat over the opening weeks, but the kill is still behind last year in Nevada County, the department of fish and game reports.

The report on the 27th day of the season shows 639 deer validated in the county compared to 690 last year. The five-year average from 1957 to 1961 in the county is 755.

Placer County reports 653 validations during the first 27 days of the season compared to 590 last year and an average of 546, while Sierra County shows 640 validations this year compared to 646 last year and a five-year average of 679.

The department reports that a total of 46,248 deer have been killed in the state this year.

The Wolverines played the more aggressive game in the first quarter, with Joe Straub making a 60 yard run into the end zone on a pass from Quarterback Chris Felte.

With the score 6-0 at the start of the second quarter, the Wolverines were optimistic but were unable to hold the Scots as they scored the touchdown to take the lead at the half time, 7-6.

On a spectacular punt return in the third quarter, the Scots ran 60 yards through the Wolverines to put them in the lead 13-6. Two touchdowns and conversions in the fourth frame clinched the game for the Highlands by the 27 to 6 score. Joe Straub was named offensive player of the week.

Radio Church Ends Annual Conclave

After a most successful and enjoyable ten-day convention at Squaw Valley, the 6,000 members of the Radio Church of God Sunday departed for their homes, but not before announcing that they would be back next fall for their annual Feast of the Tabernacle.

Throughout their stay in this area, the church members widely patronized local stores, filled many motels and hotels and rented houses, boosting the economy of the district considerably.

Although the visitors arrived in a rather severe storm, the weather almost immediately turned ideal and praise of the region as a convention center was voiced frequently, and no where was heard a bit of disappointment.

The accommodations for the churchmen this year were handled by the Squaw Valley-North Tahoe-Truckee-Donner Convention Bureau.

County Will Share In Huge Budget For State Roads

Of the total $695,927,000 statewide highway budget for the fiscal year 1963-64 voted Friday by the California Highway Commission, $39,380 has been allocated to District III in the Sacramento Valley-Sierra Nevada area.

Nevada County will receive a large portion of this allocation, the main item being $5,455,000 set up for the base and paving of the Donner Summit relocation. The 10½ mile project will connect with the completed freeway at Soda Springs on the west and at Donner Lake on the east.

Grading is now completed on the west slope and should be finished on the east slope before the end of the year. The surfacing will take two more construction seasons to complete.

The amount of $190,000 was budgeted to improve drainage and resurface State Route 89 from the Donner Creek underpass south of Truckee to a point 3.6 miles south in Placer County.

In Placer County a total of $750,000 was voted for purchase of various rights of way.

Under construction at the present time in Placer County is approximately $19,000,000 worth of freeway between Emigrant Gap and Hampshire Rocks, a distance of 11½ miles. Parts should be finished next year and the remainder before 1965.

1048 Registered To Vote In District

A breakdown of this total shows the local precincts are predominantly democratic, there being 611 registered democrats and 392 republicans.

Of the 164 voters in the Donner Lake precinct, 79 are republican and 74 democrats, this being the only local precinct where republicans lead. Eleven in the precinct decline to give their political affiliation.

In the four Truckee precincts, there are 715 voters, 443 being democrats, 247 republicans and 25 who decline to state.

Deerfield Motel Is Granted Approval

At its regular meeting on Monday, the Nevada County planning commission approved a conditional use permit for construction of a 28-unit motel on Deerfield Drive on property owned by Bogomir Pfeifer.

Pfeifer proposed to build the motel east of the Bird and Bottle Restaurant and service station, using Sierra Chalet units.

As conditions of issuing the permit, the planning commission required that sewage disposal leach lines be kept 100 feet from Donner Creek and Cold Stream in conformance with health department requirements, that the Donner Creek channel change be excluded from the use permit, and that a corrected survey and legal description be recorded before a building permit is issued.

The commission also recommended approval to the board of supervisors of the variance application of Carson A. White for a reduction of the required 20 foot setback in a C district to 10 feet for construction of a private garage.

The next meeting of the planning commission will be Friday, November 9.

The voluntary Special Aptitude Test for seniors was held on Monday, October 22, by the California Department of Employment. Fifteen seniors were interviewed. The purpose of the test was to show each student individually what kinds of jobs he is interested in. Another test will be held in the second half of this school year.

Class meetings were held this week by each class. The seniors met on Monday. The meetings were held for selecting the booths of the carnival to be held November 17. Each class makes two suggestions.

During the first six weeks, Tahoe Truckee High School decreased by 19 students. On the very first day of the school year we counted 481 students attending TNT. On Monday, October 22, the student body was composed of 462.

GROWTH OF TAHOE
RECITED IN REPORT

CRYSTAL BAY—The Lake Tahoe basin is growing twice as fast as Cape Canaveral, Florida, according to George S. Gatter, planning consultant for a Millbrae firm making a planning survey of the area.

Gatter discussed the results of the long-range general planning survey of the Tahoe region—made by the Peninsula firm of Wilsey, Ham & Blair—at the ninth semi-annual general membership meeting here of the Lake Tahoe Area Council.

The Lake Tahoe Basin, Gatter said, is only 2.5 per cent developed—a figure he predicted would increase to 7 per cent by 1980.

Gatter said there are about 150,000 acres of developable land, enough for 30,000 to 40,000 lots, now available for purchase. This should be a sufficient supply of land for the next 20 years, Gatter estimated.

By 1980, the survey showed, there will be 65,000 permanent residents employed in the Lake Tahoe Basin, 28,000 part-time employe-residents, 80,000 part-time visiting residents (summer home owners), and 250,000 tourists a year.

WORK IS STARTED ON SIERRA COUNTY ROAD

Preliminary phases of construction have started on four miles of two-lane expressway on State Sign Route 49 in Sierra County between Sierra City and Bassetts, according to state highway officials at the Marysville district office.

Beginning at a point 0.7-mile east of Sierra City, the new highway will be 32 feet wide on an improved alignment which will eliminate existing sharp curves and winding sections.

A parking and rest area will be provided at Big Springs about midway in the project. At Salmon creek, approximately 1½ miles west of Bassetts, a new three-span reinforced concrete box girder bridge will be built downstream from the existing structure which will be removed.

Traffic will be permitted to pass through the construction area at all times with a minimum of inconvenience or delay. The project will take two construction seasons to complete due to the winter shutdown necessary in the high Sierra snow country.

McNamara Corp., Ltd., of Burlingame is contractor after submitting a low bid last month of $1,388,641. Charles Chappelle of Marysville is resident engineer for the state division of highways.

SUMMIT SCENE

By FRAN COUILLARD

When we lose you for a while—we are not becoming temperamental—because, truthfully, reporting is our hobby forte. However, as the time marches on process goes on—we find that we can't answer a phone with one hand (and report). Or check in a construction man (and report) or give a hand to a harried waitress, or sooth a frustrated chef (and report). Nor look, (with amazement) at a batch of letters that signify a winter reservation (and report). And this latter statements makes us wonder into what crevice that the construction men have blasted, has summer slipped? And that the breath of winter has already turned the trees as its cold tongue has lapped the leaves. And that the saltily appearing substance on the tips of our mountains lies there to remind us that it is time to get in the winter wood and fire up the furnace, put the extra blankets out to air—check the storm shutters, wrap the pipes, spread the rubber matting in front of the doors, stock up the larder, recharge batteries, check out after ski boots, take our long handles and flannel pajamas out of storage, mix up a batch of brown sugar and butters for hot buttered rums, clean out the pop corn popper, order weekend help for "extra-ing," and worst of all—put away our summer fripperies to make our clothes closet a dull, heavy, uninteresting storage. We look out the back window and see that the very grasses have betrayed us. Waving beautifully and rhythmically (only last week) flashing in the sun from mauve to pink, they now pretend to be dead and lie flat and hay looking on the ground awaiting their white blanket. The squirrels who cavorted around the bread hand outs of the summer—frantically rent "U Hauls" to catch up on their storage problems. The wasps which have had a heyday this past summer have gone to wasp's retreats. No butterflies. No lady bugs. And water snakes have descended into their mud baths. The winds of yesteryear have plucked the pine cones from their heavenly nests and scattered them in the vales and glens. The few wild flowers that have survived—no longer droop from their stems and seek to kiss the earth—they now stand stark, dry blatant with their battered cups uplifted to the sky. The sun shines brightly during the day and smiles brilliantly as it get ready to laugh at us at nightfall when we slip on a light pullover and step out the door—only to return for a heavier wrap, as we find we have been betrayed. The cool, warm, stillness that makes us always say "fall is in the air," cannot be described. That nuance of an infinitesimal change prevades and it makes one frustrated not to be able to actually put the finger on it.

And how did we get off on that tangent? Really can't answer except I experience a sort of fall faintness, (like a falling star) as I realize that time has marched on while I have failed to keep you abreast.

And first things first this time—we'll start now and work backwards. Our great big Halloween party is in the offing. In fact this coming Saturday night. Our own particular Halloween party (which we like better than our New Year's party) because here it is that we pick up tag ends of summer's unfinished business as the neighbors come in to let down their hair in a real old fashioned kind of way. What with apple bobbing, pie eating contests, chawing away on an apple hanging from a string in congenial pairs, devouring pumpkin pie, chili beans and all kinds of old fashioned foods. We wish that we could put straw on the sun deck and have a barn dance—but that ol' devil sun I've been talking about — might just signal to its winter shadow that "this is the night." And our straw bed might become a soggy mess. So we have it inside — and our neighbors, who haven't hopped nobbed in a busy summer get together in chatty little groups — besides have fun. So you're all invited — and we'll have the same good prizes—and you really don't have to put on a costume—but it kind of adds to the fun. Right now I recall that Betty Aro and Karen Saylor came last year as Winkie Dolls. Think we climbed in a potato sack at the last minute and went as an "Old Bag." And we've had roosters and donkeys and Indian maidens and snow bunnies. Pirates, Quakers, doctors, lawyers, beggerman ad chiefs. So we'll be seeing you and "catch up."

One on the way and one gone. And again—time marches on. A baby shower for Carol Carder—No. 2 for the young Carders of the Mountain Ski Shop. Party at Glacier Gap Lodge where Maggie Avila (the Pearl Mesta of the Hill) can really put one on—and who couldn't with a stone castle built in the middle of the river? Where the stone moats and walls don't even let in the sound of the Yuba churning around it? What a delightful spot. Lends itself to parties and Maggie's sparkling crystal and silver set ups.

And one gone. You'll remember Bill Strickland? We have reported from time to time that this old resident of the hill has been undergoing heart surgery in Minneapolis — where the mechanical heart is stored? We understand that Bill is the only human being who had survived two open heart operations. What he has contributed to science in the past no one will know. However, a short time ago he quietly passed on.

And the hejira's and the de-trains. First Helen Reynolds—our own Helen Reynolds of Soda Springs—she of the big house on the hill with a tennis court and a swimming pool which has been "dedicated" to the neighbors ever since the Reynolds built their beautiful sprawling summer home at Soda Springs on some of the original Soda Springs Jones' property. As the Reynolds families have grown, and left the nest, the house became bigger and bigger to Helen. So, finally, it was sold and more about this later. But we wouldn't let Helen get off the mountain—so we all scurried around with Helen's specifications in mind "I want a smaller house—in a quiet spot, with lots of trees, and facing a running stream." And we found it. So we haven't lost this lady kind and bountiful. And she is delighted with her beautiful, hideaway cabin in the Kingvale area which is smaller, hidden, sheltered by towering pines, and bathes its 400 feet of frontage in the most beautiful, curving spot of the Yuba.

And Eleanor and John Johansen—who had lived in the shadow of the huge Reynolds menage don't know whether to cry or laugh about the deal. For the sale was made to Adrian Clark—a gal whom Eleanor Johansen went to school with—and one of those life long attachments that you don't see very often now-a-days. Adrian's children—youth, have brought to Adrian grandchildren whose little laughs, cries, and desires will echo in the walls of the place where the Reynolds kids have spent their delightful years.

And hejiring are Vince and Olga Lydanne who have been in the area for five years and have made a host of friends. Vince who has been a strong and sturdy beam in the Sugar Bowl management says that he has been offered a position "that I simply can't turn down." So the school youngsters, at the Donner Trail School, will miss Olga Lydanne who has catered them their hot lunches for quite a spell. And the kids at the Truckee High will miss pretty Barbara Lydanne who already is a glamorous youngster.

But detrain are the Leo Quinn family who are installed in their new home on the state grounds at Kingvale—in the echo of that new huge institution known as the Kingvale maintenance station. Leo—one of the state highway bosses—moved from his long time home in Dutch Flat with Carol Quinn and the children and have now become part and parcel of the Soda Springs community.

And hejiring are: Sheldon Williams and family, and Carl Bogart and family, and Jim Porten (the most eligible bachelor that the mountain gals have seen for a long time). And these with the Guy F. Atkinson Company — whom that august outfit seen fit to let the above mentioned become residents

IT GETS TOUGHER EVERY YEAR TO HOLD THIS THING DOWN

The cost of living IS soaring, but Reddy at least has managed to hold down the rates for electricity to your home. They haven't gone up in over 40 years. But just about everything else has gone up.

Holding rates down has been a neat trick, made possible by watching every penny spent, by driving hard bargains for equipment, by using the newest most modern cost cutting equipment possible and planning far ahead.

Assemblyman Paul J. Lunardi, Lillian Rechenmacher. In the only other contested countywide position, Daniel Higgins and Wayne Wylie are candidates for the district attorney's office.

Democrat of Roseville, today reported on the two-year study recently made by the state department of public health, relating to the effects of recreation on water quality in California's lakes and reservoirs. Lunardi stated that "this study, made at the request of the legislature, is part of our continuing effort to provide more water recreational facilities for our expanding population." "We must seriously consider the feasibility of expanding our recreational areas by opening up a number of closed reservoirs to public use," said Lunardi, whose eleven-county sixth assembly district contains several of the projects and reservoirs included in the public health study. The study report concluded that under conditions of limited patronage, restricted use and supervision, no serious degradation of water quality was due to recreational activities. Careful operation and maintenance of facilities is absolutely essential to safeguard the public health in these reservoirs.

SIX DAILY PAPERS ENDORSE KUCHEL

Six northern California daily newspapers have already endorsed U. S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel for re-election, the senator's northern California campaign chairman, Thomas J. Mellon reports.

"Since Senator Kuchel has been forced to remain in Washington because of the late session of congress and has been unable to campaign actively in northern California so far, this is highly flattering news," Mellon said.

"The newspapers range from strongly Republican to very Democratic," Mellon added.

"And so far, we have not heard a single endorsement by a California daily newspaper of Senator Kuchel's opponent," he added.

During the recent primary, Mellon said, 90 per cent of the state's newspapers supported Senator Kuchel.

RENO YOUNG SKATERS TO USE BLYTH RINK

Last year 1,562 youngsters participated in the program. Buses transport the young skaters to and from the valley and the project is expected to start next month.

have returned to Tahoe Vista after a well earned vacation. Missed all the storm too.

Lee Aversente, who has become a semiresident of Tahoe Vista, was kept at home for several days with an infected insect bite. Since there are no poisonous insects, snakes or the like at Tahoe, the question arises as to the cause of infection. The conclusion—simple —an extra week's vacation.

With all this sunshine and warm weather, who can think of snow and skiing? The Lake Tahoe Ski Club of which Herbert Kahn is president. Adults are cordially invited to spend an evening of fun with the ski club at the Crystal Bay Club on Friday, November 2, 7 p. m. A get acquainted hour with a champagne buffet dinner.

Marg Walker has returned home to Tahoe Vista from Reedsport, Oregon. Went to be with daughter and husband, William and Mary D. Coopride and family, Edie, 9, Bobbie, 7, Linda, 6, Russell Allan, 2, while awaiting the arrival of a new grandchild. Baby, Janie Lawrain was born October 13 weighing 7 pounds and 1 ounce.

Marg's husband, Chuck, and son, Lonnie Ross, spent the week in Los Angeles on business while she was away.

Our best wishes and blessings on Nikki Ann Wing who was married to Duane Kent Edmunds on October 13.

Nikki Ann and Duane were married at the Kings Beach Methodist Community Church and the reception followed. Nikki's parents are Otis and Kay Wing of Kings Beach.

Carlton and Edna Konarske of Incline Beach have returned from a San Francisco trek which included the last two games of the World Series, and were guests of Sam and Audrey Harrison at the opera.

Happy birthday to Kim Kornazewich, daughter of Mike and Ginny Kornazewich of Kings Beach, who was four years old on October 8. Patio birthday party—games, prize was won by two year old Greg Weiss, ice cream and the most important, birthday cake, were served the guests. Attending the celebration were Rickey and Johnny Springer, Michael and Gregory Weiss, Christine, Buddy, Gordo and Pat Bitler, and brother, Mike Kornazewich.

Oscar Beck of Downey stopped to visit sons, Don and Herbert Beck at Tahoe Vista and Squaw Valley, on his way to Tule Lake hunting.

John H. Loyd of San Francisco — Louise Walter's brother — is a most happy fella. Little ole mutt dog, Daisy, was found through the efforts of the SPCA. Was visiting the Lyon's home at Carnelian Bay and all were happy to witness the reunion.

Henri and Tina Gerkin headed for San Mateo for the winter after closing shop in Kings Beach.

Surprises oftentimes do just that. Frances Dillon of Vallejo visited our cousins at Mt. Vernon, near Auburn, Auburn and Grass Valley and stopped by to say hello to long time friend, Bethel Van Tassel, at Tahoe Vista. The long time friend phrase cannot be overlooked — not since Grass Valley dance days or daze—some 26 years ago—had we old friends met.

Juanita Clark of Marysville was a guest several days last week of Ceta Hooper at Brockway.

Lael Margrave has moved into her new home on Lakeview, Brockway, from Carmichael. Niece, Cathy Bond of Colorado will spend the winter with her. Mrs. Margrave anticipates having her sister join her at the new home in the not too distant future, from Africa, where she has spent many years.

The Emblem Club Treasure Den Rummage Sale has found a small pin in a brown coat donated to them. It has the name "Saxton" on the back and the owner may have by further identification Women's Society of Christian Service will meet with the Truckee WSCS on October 30 for a special program, according to president, Pearl Draney.

Soroptimist Club held a conference in Red Bluff last week with Mildred Matthias of Carnelian Bay as a delegate from the Lake Tahoe Sierra Club. Mildred is regional co-chairman of the scholarship committee for the Soroptimists. Reports a very interesting time.

Harry S. Hooper of Brockway, Warren Tinsley, Dr. James Hamilton and Cal Herman of Marysville, were elk hunters at Meeker, Colorado, this past week.

Celebrating their wedding anniversaries together and on the same day, October 16, were Eddie and Clea Liddle who observed their third, and Bryan and Wilma Abbott who observed their 26th. Congratulations, you-all.

VFW Post 7077 met at the Crystal Bay Club Thursday. The Department of Nevada gave a dinner Friday honoring Byron Gentry, national commander of the VFW from Pasadena. The dinner was held at the Reno Post Home on Moana Lane. Attending from the Kings Beach area were the Martins, Moores, Murrys and Molberrys—what? No McCosys?—the Liddles and the Daneris.

Mildred Matthias of Carnelian Bay, a member of the Tahoe Sierra Board of Realtors and the Women's Council of the National Association Real Estate Boards, attended the CREA convention held in San Francisco at the Mark Hopkins and Fairmont Hotels.

Rose Lamantia of Sherman Oaks was a house guest several days last week at the Carnelian Bay home of Mildred Matthias.

DONNER DOINGS

Greetings friends and neighbors, I'm your new noney reporter, for the Truckee-Donner suburban area so; be careful or you may find yourself in print in this column. For the sake of a more interesting column, for the time being I shall remain anonymous. So here is an attempt at keeping you informed on what your neighbors are doing.

In the wake of last weekend's devastating storms, we are happy to report that there seems to be very little real damage, just many inconveniences, such as the bridge being washed out at the west end, leaving many of our friends from the south side stranded, away from their homes and summer cottages. Thanks to our very congenial Donner State Park Superintendent, Jack Stowe, this problem has been eliminated. He is leaving the park gate open for the residents of the south side.

Donner Lake Utility Company people tell us that they are making every effort to have the bridge repaired by the end of this coming week. They also had the ill fortune to lose their emergency pump house which was upended in Negro Creek.

Maybe in this instance it is all for the good because the utility is relocating the pump house on the west end beach. This should make for a cleaner water supply, whenever it is necessary to use lake water, as it was this past summer.

We have seen many of our good friends this past weekend, up to close their homes for the winter, the Harold Sees, the Bert Johnsons, Bill Collier, George Stetson (he borrowed a boat to get to his house); the Harris Vaughns, the Jim Cullens, the Howard Meadows, the Rasmussens and many, many more. For those of you we didn't mention we are happy to see you, and hope that the storm was good to you, with no damage resulting, for those of you who couldn't make it up this weekend please try, before mother nature blesses us with her white mantle of winter.

A few notes on the more humorous side of the storm. One of Jack Marquette's boats put out on the lake without a pilot, and ended up securely lodged beneath Harold Sees pier across the lake. The road into Greenpoint subdivision looks like a river bed, I believe I saw some rockhounds out there today.

The girls raising their skirts in the face of a sea of water which flooded Tom Bonanos trailer park, and then being carried to high ground by their spouses, you weren't late for work were you girls. The Hadleys have a tree across their sun deck, thankfully it did little damage.

Welcome to the Gene Hassels, new residents of Donner Lake now living in the Martin Johnson house. Mrs. Hassel is the former Cheri Curran.

Sorry to hear that Charlie O'Beary has closed the Lakeview Hotel, and moved to Santa Rosa, Good luck Charles.

The always amiable Ivan Tofft cornered your reporter the other morning for a signature on the petition now being passed for annexation of our lake area to the Truckee Sanitary District. Please sign, all you property owners, as we are going to need sewers in the very near future. See Dick Walker on this, as he gave a very interesting and informative talk to the Ladies Auxiliary of the Fire Department the other eve, and told just how soon our beautiful lake will be contaminated to a point where building will have to be halted. Let's keep our lake clean, let's go for sewers.

Heard a rumor the other eve that the Dan Harmons of our Trading Post have purchased the Slack property.

I saw more Truckee-Donner people on the street of Fallon, Nevada the other day, guess you know why, this is the time of year all the fellows migrate down that way to shoot ducks. Saw Ollie Ledford and Eldon Tonini with nice limits of ducks. To all of you duck widows go on down with the fellows it's fun.

Our thanks to Frank Fox's division of highways crew for their rapid clean up of the shoulders along Highway 40 between Truckee and Donner. Good job fellows.

We hope that the parents of all the youngsters who were in on the destruction done at the William Curran home on the lake deal with them severely. Perhaps there should be no trick or treating this Halloween for them.

It was a very pleasant sight to see some boats on the lake once again this season, hope you fellows caught some big ones. Saw Chuck Baker out in his boat helping the utility lay their new pipe line, "what no fishing pole, Chuck?"

Congratulations to the Truckee Lions Club on their 30 years of fun and civic accomplishments. The Noney Reporter during the long period of construction for the new Donner Freeway.

On detaining again are the Maughans of Castle Creek and Hoyfjellet Lodge who have been a traveling this summer and now return to do all of the things we enumerated earlier—preparatory to opening their delightful spot to the skiing skids.

And in answer to our old timer's call for news—we had a delightful letter from Marion Allyn Jinks whom we told you had a fishing and hunting spot in the Lake Almanor area. Marion lists the mountain people that have visited her and whom she was delighted to see. (You know what—think our gal is a little homesick for the summit.)

We are very sorry that Barbara Zorich's father is very ill in Sacramento's Sutter General Hospital. We are sorry that Dorothy Cannon's father holds a hospital bed in a Texas hospital. We are glad that Peg Travis didn't have to stay in Sacramento's Mercy Hospital any longer than she did—for Peg is home now.

Guess Roy and Jess Thompson are still out at the Cedars.

Kingvale Park is all torn up whilst the work of putting in a new water system goes on.

And our Mother, Mrs. Lois Hack, of Kingvale—has sold our family summer home to one of our sisters. (It was kind of done on a lottery). So the home still remains in the family.

And Helen Nicholls of Pla Vada Woodlands drop in for early morning coffee—all "bubbly" as only Helen can be—and informs us that she is planning a trip around the world—starting in January.

We know that we have skipped a lot—but we are sure that Republican Sol cannot devote all of its well filled pages completely to Summit Scene. So we will sign off at this moment—and after this has left our hands—we'll think of all those important things that we should have added—but will get next time.

But get with that party Saturday night and we'll see what we have missed in this picking up of threads.

PATROL WILL ASSIST ON NEW TRUCK LAWS

The California Highway Patrol
"is going all out" to assist commercial vehicle owners and operators to comply with a new state law that requires the installation of special safety devices on all vehicles using air brakes, Lt. O. P. Ledford, officer in charge of the local patrol unit said today.
"We are offering a special training program on methods of installing the various air brake safety devices that have been officially approved by the California Highway Patrol," he added. "Any owner or operator of these vehicles who desires to participate in this training may make the necessary arrangements by telephoning me at LU 7-3518."

The patrol commander said the new law is designed to reduce vehicle runaways caused by air brake failure.
"Vehicles using air brakes must be equipped with an approved device that will provide an emergency method of braking when an air line fails or a diaphragm ruptures. These devices must be installed and in operation by March 15, 1963, and vehicles that are not in compliance by that date will be subject to citation."

EXAMINER SUPPORTS BROWN CAMPAIGN

The San Francisco Examiner, a tradition republican newspaper and supporter of Richard Nixon in his bid for U. S. Senator, vice president and president of the United States, last week recommended the re-election of Governor Edmund G. Brown.

"We do so in obedience to a long and admirable American tradition. It is this tradition that says a public official who does a good job is entitled to a second term," the Examiner said.

"We feel Governor Brown has done such a job, a solid and impressive job of major things accomplished for his native California."

The Examiner cited the fact that Governor Brown has set the state's finances in order, assured a good water program and leads a fight for better education facilities and added:

"We submit that California is booming today, and its people are moving forward confidently, in major part because the Brown administration carried out these three paramount tasks while providing honest government."

PROPOSITION 23 IS RAPPED BY GROUP

CRYSTAL BAY — Proposition No. 23, which will appear on the November 6 ballot received another jolt from the new board of directors of the Lake Tahoe Sierra Chamber of Commerce.

Action of the retiring board last August unanimously opposed the passage of Proposition No. 23, which is designed to reapportion California's senate. In this separate action by the new chamber directors, the chamber's position was reaffirmed.

Don Beck, president of the chamber, said that the board unanimously urged the residents of the State of California to reject this proposal which it was felt would lead toward a unicameral legislature. He added that the areas which see gains in representation at the present could face future losses of that representation through shifts in population centers from urban to new rural areas.

JOHNSON PLEASED BY STORM DAMAGE MEET

Congressman Harold T. (Bizz) Johnson of the 2nd, mountain-counties, district today hailed the decision of top federal officials to meet with Pacific Coast governors, lumber operators and representatives of local state and federal agencies to assess storm damage. The meeting will be held in Portland, Oregon, during the week of October 28.

"Preliminary estimates of damage to public and private timber," Representative Johnson said, "indicate the necessity of a coordinated effort to assist in elimination of fire hazards, prevent insect damage, and to determine the effect of the storm on timber production."

The meeting has been called to explore these points, Congressman Johnson said, expressing the sincere hope that the problems plus those of emergency road development could be solved as a result of the joint conference.

Edward G. Fellers, Nevada County superintendent of schools was a visitor in Truckee Monday, staying over to attend the meeting of the Rotary Club at Donner Lake Lodge.

TWO TOP SKIERS OF TAHOE ARE CHOSEN

TAHOE CITY—Two top skiers of the Tahoe area have been honored by receiving invitations to the first annual Olympic training camp to be held at the newly-opened Vail Ski Area in Colorado. They are junior skier Vicki Jones of Carnelian Bay and Jimmy Heuga of Lake Forest and the University of Colorado. Both are well-known here for their many skiing feats, Jimmy being a member of the national men's ski team and rated internationally and Vicki being the number one girl competitor in the national junior contests held last winter.

The training camp, under the auspices of the United States Ski Association and sponsored by the Skiers' Trust Fund of Chicago, will be held from December 22 through January 24 and will be under the direction of Bob Beattie, head coach of the 1964 Olympic Alpine team.

Forty-eight skiers from the United States will participate in the training camp with 28 being men and 20 women.

Seven juniors will be in attendance with 13 year old Vicki being the youngest in the group. Other California skiers who have been invited to attend the camp are Virginia Burmisa of Mt. Shasta and Ni Orsi of Stockton.

Downhill and slalom competition will be held at the conclusion of the training on January 3 and 4 which will be known as the first Skiers' Training and Trust Cup with Jimmy skiing under the University of Colorado banner and Vicki competing for the Lake Tahoe Ski Club.

FAMILY UNITES

Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, Sr., entertained her brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Blodgett of Hamilton, Montana, her sisters, Mrs. Bertha Loynd of Rigby, Idaho and Mrs. Lizzie Cowell of Los Angeles. The hostesses and relatives had attended the recent Sacramento wedding of their niece, Florence Hancock to LeRoy Perkins.

William Deason of Sacramento was a business visitor at Lake Tahoe and Truckee.

Lunardi Reports On Fish Survey

Assemblyman Paul J. Lunardi, Democrat of Roseville, today reported on the status of the two-year old Lake Tahoe fisheries study designed to improve angling in the shortest possible time.

Lunardi, whose vast 11-county sixth assembly district includes Lake Tahoe, stated that a large-scale experimental trout planting program is foremost among several plans actively pursued by the state fish and game department. Each year since the project started, between 100,000 and 200,000 yearling Kamloops, rainbow and Lahontan cutthroat have been introduced into Tahoe with the intention of creating a premium trout fishery—two pounds or better.

Although not enough time has elapsed to evaluate the success of these plantings, Assemblyman Lunardi echoed departmental personnel expressing the hope that angler's creels in 1963 should carry the results. All the fish have been given distinctive fin marks to permit recognition in creel checks.

Another possible means of rejuvenating the Tahoe trout fishery is by altering food chains and improving the diet of mackinaw and rainbow trout. The department of fish and game is investigating different food fish and such invertebrates as the freshwater shrimp. Additionally, Lunardi noted primary investigations indicate a possible correlation between the poor success of the native rainbow and introduced cutthroat and the large population of brook and brown trout in Tahoe's tributaries. An experimental stream will be established to determine the extent of this relationship.

Lunardi pointed out that although the success of these various programs cannot be assured, at present they are the most likely avenues to improved angling at Tahoe.

TRUCKEE MAN SUES FOR ILLEGAL ARREST

RENO—A Truckee man is suing the City of Sparks and three Sparks police officers for an alleged illegal arrest December 11, 1961.

Vernon T. Johnson seeks $20,000 in two causes of action in a complaint filed in Washoe District Court. Defendants in addition to the city, are Det. Sgt. Sam Costa, Det. Harold Jensen and Lt. Harry Garske.

Johnson alleges that he was arrested in Truckee by the defendants, handcuffed and brought to the Sparks City Jail where he was incarcerated 72 hours without being permitted to call an attorney or face a magistrate.

There were no reasonable grounds for the arrest on a forgery complaint, the defendant claims. Sparks City Councilmen denied the plaintiff's claim for damages February 12.

In a second cause of action, Johnson charges he was charged with vagrancy and "compelled" to enter a guilty plea. However, out of his presence the plea was changed to innocent and the charge dismissed, the complaint alleges.

The defendants threatened to rearrest Johnson if he did not leave the state, the complaint charges.

ACCIDENTS (Continued from Page 1)

Stockton had been parked on the highway and Rogers did not see it until too late to avoid a collision. A third car, driven by Earl T. Cantrell, 64, Sacramento, crashed into the Rogers car. Davies was cited.

Minor injuries were suffered by Mary Katherine Denner, 19, Olympic Valley last Wednesday when her car ran off the road on Donner grade when she took her eyes momentarily off the highway while lighting a cigarette. Patrolman Dan Davis investigated.

Officers are seeking a pickup truck which backed into a car belonging to Richard W. Taylor, Culver City at Kings Beach last Thursday and drove away without making a report of the accident. Patrolman Davis was called to investigate.

Richard J. Smythe, 27, Leadville, Colo., was cited for making a bad pass on Donner grade which resulted in a collision with a car driven by Shiela Williams, 21, Norden last Wednesday at 11 a. m. Smythe attempted to pass, had to cut in sharply and struck the Williams car. Patrolman Maynard investigated.

Sunday at 10 a. m. Howard G. Essen, 38, Spencer, Iowa and James L. Turman, 32, Zion, Iowa, were injured in a collision at Observation Point.

Dr. Ivan A. Hull, Kings Beach wrecked his car on Dollar Hill Saturday and was cited by Patrolman Dan Davis for not having the vehicle under control. He was not injured.
